KING'S INTERNATIONAL SCHOOL is in Goma, North Kivu Province, Democratic Republic of Congo (DRC). The eastern part of the DRC has been ravaged by armed conflict and epidemics for decades. In this area, and throughout the country in general, the level of education among children is increasingly low. The level of computer literacy in primary and secondary schools is virtually nil (survey). As a result, young people graduating from university are less and less competitive on the job market and find themselves in a vicious circle of unemployment. King's International School, a private, accredited school, was created to help meet these challenges, which are threatening the future of Goma's youth.

We intend to make King's International School a resource center for new information and communication technologies for the benefit of schools, young schoolchildren, and university students in the city of Goma.

Our Vision: To create a new generation that is well trained, morally balanced and prepared to lead the DRC of tomorrow in a different way.

Our mission: To ensure access to quality education for the less well-off at an affordable cost.

Project goal: Contribute to the reduction of barriers to access to good quality education by children.

Objectives:

- Provide computer training for young schoolchildren and the unemployed at the school's facilities.
- To offer a quality training opportunity in IT to young schoolchildren, university students or unemployed people from the outskirts of the town of Goma, where the school is located.

2. Project Description - Please explain about your project and how you will use the laptops (*):

In total, we'll need 100 laptops that will be dedicated to training students regularly enrolled in the school. In detail, these computers will be used for:

- Computer courses for students regularly enrolled at King's International School (300 students expected in 2024-2025 as well as teachers. Some other youth from surrounding schools will also be trained.
- Computer training courses for young students from nearby universities, as well as for young people who have already completed their secondary and/or university education. In total, we aim to reach an additional 200 young people between 2024 and 2028.
- Offering the necessary skills to young teachers who had to finish their training cycle without having had the chance to learn about the computer. We plan to train 20 teachers and school staff by 2025.
- This will give a total number of 520 beneficiaries expected at the end of 2025.
