2. Project Description - Please explain about your project and how you will use the laptops (*): Since three years im supporting Harrison by building his school. he decided to quit his job 7 years ago to bring education to the poor children in his village. so he started to build a school. three years ago i started the project in switzerland and we began with the reconstruction of the school. We started with 5 children and now we have 140. As the digital education is very important for the future we would love to give this kind of education to our students. especially in these countries international education is very important. it would give us a strong support for the children and also the teachers. so they have more oppotunities to educate the children and also themself. The children would also be able to do research. (as we don't have a library yet)

Labdoo Laptop Recipient Agreement:

Dear Laptop receiver:

We are very pleased to have the opportunity to contribute to your project by providing technology to help bridge the digital divide.

With every right comes responsibilities. Technology, when adequately used, can provide very powerful means to aid those that are most in need. But if used improperly, it can also damage our environment. By receiving the above items, you are automatically accepting to abide by the following Labdoo global responsibilities:

(1) The items received will be used only for the purpose described by your organization at the time you solicited this donation.

(1.1) If you intend to use it for a different purpose, you will contact first the Labdoo team at contact@labdoo.org.

(1.2) Only schools and projects may claim for Labdoo computer donations and not by individuals.

(1.3) Donated items may only be removed from school ground with admittance of Labdoo (example, teachers cannot take laptops outside school). If Labdoo reviser visit your project and discovered donated items are missing, your school / project will be excluded from Labdoo support and CANNOT receive any further donation.
